Yes, absolutely. I had a wonderful time. Going on the plane and experiencing that was worth it on its own. Yesterday I packed in the day. Woody & I had to go to some boring talks until lunch and then we had the rest of the day free. We went to a museum, Bechet and I saw the subway system which was very beautiful. They have Wi-Fi on the subway so I don't know why we don't in New York and then we went to see the Hamlet the ballet @ the Bolshoi. After we had caviar for dinner. What more can I ask for. I love living the high life and having friends who are in the 1%. You're included in this :-).
