But this is a rea= difference. Two different kinds of company: one makes software, the ot=er does designs & prototypes. Design offices have done well in tech=(eg Noyes & IBM, Frog Design & Apple), & of course in other ar=as (Bertone et al; Porsche); but, granted, there are no software design=houses yet. They'd produce "concept car" software to b= picked up & manufactured by other companies (like Pininfarina designs=picked up by Fiat, Ferrari etc). Maybe it wouldn't work, but it'=s an attractive idea; puts all the brainpower in the right place.

I'll try to call tmw AM if that's OK.

If you have time any day next wk, I'd still love to know how you si=e the thing up as we go on to other potential people. Tmw I'm in Bo=ton delivering paintings [to an investor whose financial brilliance is spo=en of with awe -- tho not be me]; any other day, M-F?

Thanks a lot. Still love to have you in Woodbridge--
