Subject: Futurist panel I'm doing Thurs at 7pm: Bioengineering and Empathy

Friends, Futurists and Fellow Empaths,

=m wrting to invite you to a futurist talk + panel I'm doing this=Thursday at 7pm at NYU through the ITP program. It's the strangest, mo=t exciting topic for an evening:

Enhancing Humanity Th=ough Bioengineering, Synthetic Telepathy and Empathy

I'll be sharing the stage with two impressive technologists: ADAM PI=RE, author of The Body Builders: Inside the Science of the Engineered Huma= and GERWIN SCHALK, neuro-engineer, who's building a "thought hel=et" enabling people to communicate telepathically. I'll be talkin= about the innate ability to know what people are feeling by tuning into t=em. Pretty cool, right?

Here's all the info:<=div>

When: Thursday, April 17, 7 - 9pm

Where:=NYU, Interactive Telecommunications Program (ITP)

721 Broadway, =th floor (South), New York, NY

Tickets: $15 at the door, include= a glass of wine Link to purchase: <http://bit.ly/2vt2Gxi> <=iv>

Would love to see you there!

Your fr=end,
David aka EMPATH
