Pen,

I love you ve=y much and I am very hurt by your behavior. I needed by boyfriend to calm m= down and help me solve the problem -instead of accusing me of giving him a=xiety and making sarcastic comment. I agree that I overreacted - after bein= attacked in the street and robbed a few times, to see my driver take off v=ry fast, with very valuable things for me, and turn his phone off, was a pr=tty big deal for me. He only answered the phone 40 min later and was very r=de to me. I ended up waiting outside your place for him for another 4= min, he asked for money and said I should be thankful he came back... Mayb= I am wrong, but I think men should handle these things and I am surprised y=u didn't even call me to ask if I was ok (you saw how upset I was). </=iv>

I think both of us need some time to think. I need to go to R=ssia for a few days. Why don't we talk when I get back at the end of the ne=t week?
