JE,

Fyi,

A banker from Vermillion Partners left a message for me =oday. He's calling on behalf of CITIC, a huge Chinese conglomerate and =ur biggest customer. They want to explore developing "a strategic =elationship" with us. When we first met them, they showed up with =omputers, printers, and bought translation rights to 60 books on the =pot, generating contracts as they went along. (One deal is enough to =ake it a good meeting). Max asked "Who are you." "We're the =overnment," he replied.
