Thank you Masha (bcc) and hi again, Jeffrey.

Jeffrey:

Did your assistant forward along my e=ail from the day we met? Unsure if this is the first or second time we◆=80◆re communicating electronically.

Let's get you some press. I have begun mentally w=iting a story with a headline to the effect of "The Billionaire Bi=coin Bull Sounds Off On Cryptocurrency." In my imagination, the st=ry starts with who you are, establishes some street cred within the crypto=space, and then serves up your ideas/positions on the state of cryptocurre=cy.

Anyone reading t=e story will clearly understand that this is just one of your interests, n=t your sole interest. I'd want to talk with you more deeply about =ow/why the US government is stuck in the mud on Bitcoin, ask you to repeat=some anecdotes from our meeting, and generally work toward establishing so=e trust with you as a journalist. I'm one of the good ones, I swea=.

Is there a convenient time in the near future for u= to speak on the phone?
