Jeffrey,

Do you think D. Port=ault is worth pursuing? If so, would you consider backing me? We would nee= to submit a business plan to the French Judge at the Bankruptcy court by =ay 24th which does not give us much time.

Clearly we would need to f=nd a really could CEO and CFO and develop a marketing strategy.

I really think this is a j=wel that has lost its lustre and with a bit of polishing could regain its =rand stature on the global map in a relatively short period of time.

The exit would be in 3-5 y=ars when it might be sold to Chanel, Richemont or LVMH.

Just let me know either wa= ASAP, so I can pursue other avenues if its not of any interest to you.

As ever,

Mark
