He wants to know if you would be free at 3 pm for a conf call. If so, I can call you then and patch him in.
Would that work?

I think the most troubling text is the "cancer" text and he and I have talked about that and he understands that, I thought.

I don't think she technically has a "legal" claim (there have been no promises made, no stalking, no threats), though I told him yesterday that the filing of a baseless lawsuit would be devastating to him and his world and he should do everything he can to avoid that.

But happy, of course, to all sit down and discuss.
