How is it possible that the Washington=Post -- a once storied newspaper -- did an A1, above the fold, story restin= entirely on this guy's credibility, and they either didn't know or didn't a=k about the circumstances of his resignation?

Unfo=tunately, I think many of the stories we read have similar problems, and we=never know about them. It is nuts, but that's how it is.

Do you think I should expect my apology from the Wash Post soon=
