You know I'm not a business person and can't do something if it's not somehow artistic but I need skills if I want to do things professionally. I'm also organizing a meeting with this =photographer in London called Tim Walker. I have the possibility to know great photographers so I don't understand why I cannot work with them and in parallel go to a photography school to improve my skills.

Resourceful =n what ? I've worked this whole year long. I worked hard doing things = didn't like and even by doing it can't pay all my expenses alone =nd you are still not talking to me. If I get zero satisfaction out of it (=financially and emotionally) why should I do it ?? Which gratification do=I get ?

My dream would have been to go to a p=otography school like Parson's, icp or St.Martin and learn it in a pro=essional way since it's my passion and it's what makes me happy. I=also would have loved to try acting school during the summer or in my free=time. I don't know why I've always been denied to it.
