Oh Jeffrey.. Everyday In NYC is like a blossom which opens in the early morning with its amazing colours and flavours...life here is full of surprises..its so real and rich..we're experiencing extraordinary life : my ballet classes in Steps, flea markets, streets and subway life, ( i could spend all day long watching people, their style, behaviour, creativity..) experiencing new tastes, flavours, different fatigue , we're meeting people..we also been in Juilliard school to listen Mozart for Violin, oldest jazz club in Soho..there is no another place in the world like this.. and after a long long day, we're coming back to rest in these beautiful, clean apartment in the heart of Manhattan..Thank you so much Jeffrey! We are going to stay till next Monday October 6th.Will you come back from the Island till then? I would love to invite you to see the excecition of increadable Sabastiao Salgado pictures. Also there is something for you from Lithuania i would love to give! I really hope that I won't fly back home without seeing you and saying thank you..even if you give just 5 min. for me I would be very happy!

With gratitude and love
