WAYS TO CHANGE THE WORLD

We are delighted to announce the first confirmed speakers and topics for h=w to: Change The World 2016, taking place on 1st December at the Royal=Institution. A limited number of Earlybird Tickets are available until 20=h June (Earlybird Ticket: £99 | Standard Ticket: £179).

We are also excited to offer a strictly limited number of Salon Ti=kets, which include lunch with one or more speakers in a Mayfa=r restaurant.

Presenting leading experts on: holographic computing, new techniques in cancer research, neural implants, robotic brains, human-centred geolocation, clean hydrogen fuel cells, 3D printed organs, DNA data and more.

Now in its third year, the one-day how to: Conference will provide an unparalleled insight into the innovations that will change our lives in the near (and distant) future – presented through engaging 15-minute demonstrations by the people at the forefront of their development.

We are excited to offer a first look at some of the speakers who will be joining us on 1st December at the Royal Institution where the Keynote Speaker will be delivered by Professor Daniel Zajfman, President of the Weizmann Institute.

The day will be moderated by Matthew Taylor of the RSA.

We will announce more speakers soon, and hope that you will join us on 1st December at the Royal Institution.
