Rupert spoke with Bentley and there will be a 2017 car with only 25 made for USA they are saying 2017 will be only production year they will be in NYC showing car May 3-5 and around that time will have specs to choose still no word on rear seat however he mentioned rear seat will be like airplane seat with footrest pricing will be in high 300k range to low 400's but still unknown delivery in Q1 2017 we can put down a 50,000 refundable deposit to reserve spot

Rupert is circling 3 customers from his store and does not know how many have signed up in USA

please advise thank you

seems like offer of 36k for Bentley is about 15-20k to low as i am sure they are leaving a cushion as it will probably take a while to sell per rupert they are still waiting on final pricing on WB

maybe best to use 36 & 135 = 171 and try to push to 175-180 which will save us approx 15k in sales tax if you proceed with buying Bentley

Morning Rich,

I have finally heard back from a trader who specialises in older Bentley's. We could offer =36,000 for the Arnage.

I am chasing Bentley USA almost daily for the final pricing. They keep telling me it's imminent. I will of course forward it all onto you straight away. I have another 2 buyers in the same position as you with this car!!

Best,

Rupert

Hi Rich,

They are both not the =asiest cars to get form values on I'm afraid. I have $135,000 for the =aybach. There seems to be alot of new unsold inventory of those cars so =lot of dealers are wary of buying more already titled!

I am working with =pecialist buyers on the Arnage, that will take a little longer to get =irm numbers. I will be in touch as soon as I hear more.

I have also chased our =entley regional manager up for an update on pricing for the Mulsanne =WB.

I'll be =n touch,

Rupert
