The graduation ceremony will be live streamed on this website [REDACTED] starting 11:00am Friday, May 22. I'm sure you are busy and have millions of other more important things to do, but in case you would like to see how funny I look in that cap and gown, I wanted to share with you the link were you can actually see me :)

Thank you again for all you do for me.. I feel so special to know such an outstanding person like you.

Kisses!
