June 2013

In June 2013, the [REDACTED], the New York Office initiated an intensive programme on multilateralism. This course aimed to extend my understanding of ,and an appreciation=for, multilateralism as a young professional in global affairs. Along with other seventeen students I was trained in the concepts of multilateralism, and its origins.I participated in [REDACTED]

During the program I learned that multilateralism is both critical but complex and that it requires inter alia cooperation to reach an agreements. It enhanced my ability to negotiate and to work cooperatively, especially if the quest involved shared consensus that needs to be both broad and lasting. I conducted a d=tailed analysis of [REDACTED] produced a research paper=20 that was
