It's called Black Hat (security conference I'm on the board of: www.blackhat.com <<http://www.blackhat.com>>), Joshua came last year. I think he'll probably show up this year as well if he=can move his trip to China. Joe wanted to go as well this year but I think he's doing some advanced diving class in LA.

It's Aug 4-7 and then right after it there's defcon, which is essentially the= 'folklore' version of Black Hat and I think that goes from the 8th to=the 11th. But I'm flying to NYC on the 8th cause I have a bunch of investor= meeting there starting from the 11th
