Ein=tein's Genius

Hi There,

Exciting news! The first Focus@Will music album is released this week, 'Electro-Bach Concentration Music, Vol. 1'. Now you can finally get in a flow state without being connected to the internet.

Focus@Will & National Geographic

The album is the result of a partnership with National Geographic for the launch of their new flagship 10-part TV show 'Genius', about Albert Einstein, who played his violin every day to help him get into a flow state and find his 'light bulb' creative genius inspiration.

It's a unique baroque/electronica hybrid; 11 new recordings of selected Bach pieces arranged for string quartet, played by top London and LA session musicians, combined with specifically designed electronic dance music production techniques that integrate 5 years of our large scale focus science research.
