Hi Jeffrey.

I talked to my friend who I think might be a good chief of staff for =ou.

She lives in New York and has a “dependent” who I think =s a boyfriend who is sick. She just got a job at an insurance company =hich is a pretty secure job, but doesn’t pay super-well, but =hey have benefits and stuff. She doesn’t really care about her =areer but cares about the job security and the money.

I wonder if I could ask you frankly how much you think you might be able =o pay her. Also, she’s concerned about job security. Is there =ay for you to provide some sort of deal where if you fire her, you =ould pay her enough money to be comfortable or at least give her time =o find the next thing?

Her concern is giving up a safe job.
