Dear Jeffrey,

Ah gutten Chodesh and ah freilichen Chanukah!</=pan>

Did your children (or grandchildren or nieces and nephews) get Cha=ukah gelt this year? Did they receive gifts from their parents or g=andparents?

For children of families that cannot make ends meet, there is ofte= little to celebrate on Chanukah. Poverty is often accompanied by desponde=cy, and gifts are often the last thing on the minds of parents who barely =et through each day.

For this reason, once each year, we fill the Tomche Shabbos wareho=se with toys instead of food. Thanks to our anonymous donor, we hav= toys that are appropriate for boys and girls of every age. Volunteers pac= boxes for all Tomche Shabbos families with toys suitable for each of thei= children. These boxes are delivered together with the Shabbos food packag=s on the week before Chanukah, putting a smile on the face of every child =efore yom tov!

But there's more! This month, Tomche Shabbos distributed food, toy=, and COATS! Yes, that is correct. We distributed 1,000 winter coats, warm=ng the hearts of parents and insuring a warm winter for their children.

Click on the link below to see some of the action at our warehouse= What a wonderful way to bring the light of Chanukah into the homes of str=gging families in our community!

Thanks to your support, Tomche Sh=bbos assists 500 families in Rockland County with food, job placements, ut=lity payments, and more. For more information, visit www.tomcheshabbos.org/donate
