Jeffrey,
I was able to find two more muralist for you to look at.
The second one says he can do any style but is not available until June.

Illia Barger, Painting, Muralist

Voutsas

I have a number of fabric choices for the dining room sofa that I will leave for you to look at when you return.
I spoke to Merwin today and he will pick them up from Karyna at [REDACTED] next week.
Unfortunately most of the high end fabric house that carried chinoiserie style fabrics discontinued them several years ago.

Also I will forward you two emails from my dealer. One is an artisan who could possibly do a custom case for the sofa.

The other is a pair of cabinets that I think you should see for under the mirrors in the entry.
Now I know you didn't ask for me to continue looking in this area but he never stopped from our search last year.
Just a thought.

I will be away next week.

Cheers,
Gregory
