The magazine is jumpy so they're planning to call ever= name referenced in the piece today. Not an unusual practice, but perhaps =t's worth you sending a heads up to people quoted--particularly Summer=--and anybody else that might be surprised.

And j=st to reiterate, we can still bail on the whole project. But I still feel =his will be a net positive and you get maximum control with this piece. Bu= I'm fine with whatever you decide.

Mod=rating a panel this morning of television people, but free by 9:30. <=div>
