-I understand that I am not allowed for any action that might put you in a dangerous position such apartment staying without your approval.

- I understand that you don't trust my friend=C2

-I understand that I have to apply for an economic hardship and get a work authorization as soon as possible =div>

-I understand that I must find a summer job <=div>

-I understand that I must not trust or follow other people's opinion and advice without a solid proof and evidence for it=/div>

- I understand that not following directions but =aking my own decisions are only for worse
