We need to get side tables, bed and lamps for [REDACTED] apartment. I am looking for things in stock. I have found this bed in room and board. I think it is in a linen similar to the blinds. I will get a sample today from Room and board. The dressers are leather. I thought of getting similar nightsatnnds. There are currently 2 little mirrored side table sin the apartment that we could also use if we want. Also included a few black laquer options but would prefer to try match up color and leather to dresser. I just have to do all the measurements for bed and mattress height, side tables and lamps, so that we keep everything in proportion.
