Good morning Jeffrey,

I'm flying back to Palm Beach today and have all of next week open. If you are interested, I can go to LSJ for 4 or 5 days starting Monday and:

Implement all the new checklists. Spend a day with each department and make sure they know how to work the checklist and how to fill them out

Do a complete evening walk through with Danny V and Danny E to mark all lights that needs work, adjust timers and show them the areas where they need to perform better

Go over all tech with Jermaine, check speakers and systems

Give Marine department much needed instructions in how to do log books for my statistics

Make sure housekeeping is still using the techniques Dwight implemented

Follow up on open punch lists and check current island status

Thanks

John
