Subject: RE: Interviews at Mt. Sinai closed

I've been asking for weeks this comes today when they closed out the=applications, sometimes a personal interview can make the difference why d=dn't she email before now, you 1st emailed me on 11/4 and I said I needed this number to reach out and it's 1=1 on Monday I'll do my best on Monday to speak to the head of the residency program. the number is critical whether it's for a medical school =r dental school applicant as they can't look up any information about her without that residency positions for&=bsp;advanced training in<=span> general practice dentistry. Mt. Si=ai, New York has now completed invitations for interviews of selected=prospective applicants. Please note that we routinely receive fa= more "qualified applicants" than those we are able to select for=interviews. For those of you =who may not have yet been invited for interviews, please do not feel =discouraged. Dental Residency applications continue t= be at their highest levels and applicants to open position ratios remain =ighly competitive.

Please be assured of o=r best wishes as you pursue excellence in the provision of dental care.=/u>
