Subject: Discontinuation of Google Paid Storage

Hi there,

Our records indicate that you've elected to renew your Google Paid Storage subscription for an additional year. However, we were unable to process the payment using the default credit card provided in your Google Checkout account.

At this time, your quota has been downgraded to the Basic Plan. If you would like to continue using paid storage, you can upgrade your account at any time by visiting your account management page <https://www.google.com/accounts/PurchaseStorage>. If you have any questions, please visit our help center.
