Hey Jeffrey,

I'm going to see Vincenzo today. I think you know, but I'm funding him out of pocket and trying to decide the next step with him. Just wondering if you have any thoughts on him since we last checked in on =his... whether you have any interest in funding any of his idea or his =hinking about ideas. Obviously, I don't want to force him on you (even =f I could) ;- but just wondering because I can't afford to keep =unding him.

Personal view is that he's smart, hasn't gotten "the idea" yet, but that =f he did he'd have a decent swing at the bat at doing something.

Also, on David Smith. He's getting jerked around by his other investors. =re you interested in doing more or are you a bit wait and see with =ther things going on like the thing from Samsung?

Looking forward to speaking later with Barnaby.
