Subject: Hello!!!

Hi Jeffrey,

Just called, but not sure I have the right cell number for you. Thinking of you and hope life is treating you great! Any news?

All good here in the District of Corruption – I'm lovin' Trump. He is turning this town on its head, and have to admit, I'm enjoying watching the action (except for the shooting, of course, which was tragic). Especially interesting is watching the Dems implode – I'm really shocked at how wrong they judged the public. Am having dinner tonight with one of the Blue Dog Dems, and think they could maneuver to take over the party – Rep. Jim Costa is the defacto head – we'll see. Have popcorn, sitting back and watching the show 😊

Just got a big promotion to [REDACTED]. Am very excited, and love the job – it is so rewarding. I spend most of my time giving lectures on [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. And the rest of the time as [REDACTED]

If you hear of any special panels or commissions President Trump is forming, please keep me in mind. Sure the hospital won't mind loaning me out, and pretty sure I'm one of a handful of [REDACTED] 😊.

Let me know if you get to DC. Would LOVE to see you!!!

Miss you and all the great times we had xxxx

PS. How are [REDACTED] doing?
