Yep, I don't pay attention to the fear, I spend a lot of my down time educating myself on debt and how to use it to my benefit. The amount is irrelevant, my return on it is more important. Stay ahead of inflation, "it's a silent thief"

I saw a few good ones that needed a little rehab That were in great areas, that would allow me to capture instant equity once it's brought up to the comparable homes in the area. The rents there are strong as well. The Realtor will send me the specs On them then I can determine if it'll cash flow positively.
