I am not checking Hotmail as often as all of my email is going to biomatics.

If you send it to Hotmail it can go for days without me noticing

Re Greg – he is relatively a new hire. I do not know him. Larry hired him from his friend's consulting company <https://intentionalfutures.com/>.

Larry has been getting them a lot of work through bgc3.

That guy Greg worked before on some demo days for Bill.

Although he does not have any executive (or funding) power, he can present to Bill interesting projects at Media Lab and suggest that Bill visits Media Lab some time in future. This is all value there.

Hi Joi,

My good pal Greg Martinez is coming out to MIT Nov 6-10.

Possible for you or someone from the Media Lab to show him some cool stuff?

He works for Bill Gates @ BGC3 (bill gates company #3)

This is where Bill does his investments, projects, and work that crosses his work for MSFT + the foundation.

Anyway, would be great for Media Lab to connect to some of the cool things with Bill.

Greg is also awesome 😊

& thanks!
