- * Have been living in marital union with the U.S. citizen spouse, who has been a U.S. citizen during all of such period, during the 3 years immediately preceding the date of filing the application and up until examination on the application
- * Have lived within the state, or USCIS district with jurisdiction over the applicant's place of residence, for at least 3 months prior to the date of filing the application
- * Have continuous residence in the United States as a lawful permanent resident for at least 3 years immediately preceding the date of filing the application
- * Reside continuously within the United States from the date of application for naturalization until the time of naturalization
- * Be physically present in the United States for at least 18 months out of the 3 years immediately preceding the date of filing the application
- * Be able to read, write, and speak English and have knowledge and an understanding of U.S. history and government (also known as civics)
- * Be a person of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the United States during all relevant periods under the law

Does your GF have a green card? If so – when was it issued? If she has one she should get married ASAP and move in with her spouse.

The 3 month time period applies to the time period in which she has to be resident in the USVI prior to applying.
