Dear Richard,

Here is the breakdown for the $100,000 that Jeffrey is giving me for my 70th Birthday:

1. $30,000 for my 70th Birthday party in Southampton on July 15th. You wired us the money, and the bill was paid.
2. $15,000 went to Elton John's AIDS Foundation, which you paid directly, enabling me to attend a party at his house in June.
3. $20,000 deposit for Stark Carpet in my apartment. I paid the bill and we need to be reimbursed.
4. Total expenditure so far is $65,000.
5. There will be another bill from Stark Carpet for the remaining $20,000 in a few months.
6. There is $15,000 that is to be determined.

I am very sorry for any mix up from my office and for any additional billing they mistakenly sent you without my knowledge.

XOXO,
Peggy

Dear Jeffrey,

My third and final birthday soiree, hosted by Adam & Amalia Lindemann at their Andy Warhol compound in Montauk, was a huge success for 70 artists and lefties.

People like Bruce Weber, Dick Cavett, Julian Schnabel, Blythe Danner, and actress Cherry Jones showed up.

The lesbians were Dorothy Berwin and Dominique Levy and the token Republicans were Emilia and Pepe Fanjul who brought their yacht from Sag Harbor.

Rob Weisenthal came and provided a helicopter from Southampton at cost for Avi and Gigi Mortimer.

Lunch was in a tent, overlooking the ocean. Adam made a funny speech. I, of course, made a heartfelt speech about beauty and anti-aging.

I am sending by email my booklet. I will mail you some copies on Monday. It has a bright pink cover with a photo of me and a big bow. Tell me where to send them, you can give them out to all of your friends. I'll send you as many copies as you want. Please read it, even you can learn something, and it will make you laugh.

I just bought an amazing brown and beige leopard rug that is wall to wall carpeting for my whole apartment and being made in France. I probably won't have it for months, but Stark is putting in a temporary floor covering until it comes. The total price is $39,123. Stark wants a 50% deposit, which is $19,561.50. Do you want to pay Stark directly or do you want to send me the deposit? Either way is fine.

When the apartment gets done, you're my first visitor.

I'm going to Nantucket on Friday's boat this weekend. I'll be back on Monday. Hope you're well. Please tell me what you think of the new birthday booklet.

xoxo,
Peggy

Subject: 70th Birthday Dinner in Southampton

Dear Jeffrey,

As you know, I am in the South of France finishing up the last leg of my three week trip to London, Capri, Coronis and St. Maxime. Have had an amazing time.

Will be home on Friday, July 14th. Going straight to Southampton for the final planning of my 70th birthday party. The party will be at Avie and Gigi Mortimer's in Southampton on Saturday, July 15th.

What was originally to be a dinner for 30 I play tennis with, has grown into a mini event for 70 friends.

I've been working hard on organizing this for three weeks from Europe with my office, the caterer, and the florist. I think it's going to be sensational and I am very excited.

I have enclosed the invitation, the latest guest list, the bill from the caterer and the bill from the florist/party designer.

As you can see, the total is approx. $30k. What I am planning to do with the rest of your 100k gift (minus the 15k for Elton John) is use it for the renovation of my apartment. Will give you further details soon.

I cannot thank =ou enough for your amazing generosity and always making my life that =uch better. It makes me feel as if my own father is looking down upon =oth of us and thrilled that such a wonderful person is taking care of =is daughter, as he would have, had he lived to be =00!

I wish you were =ble to be there. As you can see, the list is pretty interesting and =only you could've made this birthday such a memorable =ne.

I am also =pdating the best seller "How to Look Like Me at 60" =ith a sequel called "How to Look Like Me at 70: The Sequel to =ow to Look Like Me at 60." Will give you the first signed =opy.

xoxo,
Peggy

P.S. Do you =ant the caterer and the florist to bill you directly? My accountant =osh put down a $6k deposit on the caterer.
