Luce Churchill has just called to invite me to dinner with David Koch in London on June 13th, which I am inclined to accept.

It just occurred to me that this precisely coincides when you are thinking of arriving in Marrakech.... </=iv>

So I am in a bit of a dilemma. I would naturally prioritise your visit, but given how fluid your travel plans are, I don't want to refuse this invitation, unless I know for sure you are coming.

Unless you would consider doing this trip a few days earlier or later?
