Glad you are fine again.. say hi to Martin too again.. was nice to see him briefly.

Will find out where to get the light buzzer for you.

btw.. revised 2 papers and got them accepted for publication during the honeymoon month.. :)

here are some photos with Penn and Teller.. only the last was for public consumption.. the rest include nancy and santal, whose privacy I protect.

talk to you sometime. enjoy paris.. I had something else I meant to write you about after the call.. was hoping that by typing this stuff I might remember it, but didn't.. if I do, I will write again..
