Starting Jan 1st, Amex will not allow anyone except =or Jeffrey to book travel on his Amex card unless they are =egistered as an account manager under his account. =nbsp;

Bella/Rich, you must go to "americanexpress=com/registeraccountmanager" and log in as Jeffrey (with his user ID =nd password) Then you must answer all the questions that are =sked. I am told you should do this as soon as possible. ...once =an 1 rolls around they will not make acceptions and allow me (or anyone =lse JE has given permission to book travel in the past) to make any new =eservations.

I have been told Jeffrey =hould have received emails to his email account that is registered with =mex Travel already re this Fraud Protection =hange.
