

---

From: [REDACTED] >
Sent: Monday, April 24, 2017 8:13 PM
To: jeffrey E.
Subject: Re:

Note that if you are creating a certificate for use in an SSL/TLS server, the Common Name component of the RDN must match exactly the host name of the server. This must not be an IP address, but the actual domain name, e.g. www.apple.com.

Entering a CR for a given RDN component results in no value for that component.