Experience Big City Book Club — The Times's long-running book discussion series — in person at a special Bed-Stuy edition of the popular feature. To be held at the recently renovated Billie Holiday Theatre and hosted by Big City columnist Ginia Bellafante, this installment features a discussion of "Another Brooklyn," the best-selling novel about coming of age in Kings County in the 1970s. Join Ginia and the author Jacqueline Woodson for a lively conversation. Come with questions or thoughts and memories to share while mingling with fellow literature lovers at this intimate event, held in partnership with RestorationART. Reserve your spot, and hop on the A/C train for a memorable night in Brooklyn.
