Dear Leon,

Thank you for the kind words: it's a rare experience to click with so=ebody as quick and profoundly as I felt yesterday. In hindsight I forgot t= invite you to a reception we are having on Sunday. I'm having some 20 for=ign ministers and Secretaries General of international organization and UN officials for a principals only worki=g dinner on the Middle East. I would be delighted if you could come to the=reception. I think you would find it very interesting. I will by separate =mail send you a formal invitation and the list of confirmed participants.

I will also send the concept note on cooperation between IPI and CEU =o Michael today, and I will take the liberty of copying you.

Warmest regards,
Terje

Dear Michael,

I was visiting a good friend in New York City, and a guest arrived, T=rje Rod Larsen, and a delightful conversation ensued. Among other things h= mentioned your meeting in Vienna and the possibility of some collaboratio= with the IPI in Vienna.

It was truly a most enjoyable encounter.
