Thank you very much for setting this up. It sounds like we can add a lot of value to them. I hope I have sounded non threatening. After we left we talked a couple of minutes. Told him again how fascinating his politics story was and he seemed very pleased. It was his idea to give me his card and I told him that unfortunately I did not have one with me.

=div>I am available when you want for the next steps. It's a BIG opportunity, exactly as you said.

Thank you
