Subject: Happy New Year

Just want to wish you all a very healthy and happy new year for 2012....and to let you all know how incredibly appreciative and thankful I am for all your hard work in 2011.

This company is a complete result of everyone's vision, dedication, endless hours, pride of accomplishment and love of filmmakers and films.

Everyone one of you has exhibited tremendous creativity and understanding of the each project...and always dealt with the clients in the most professional way....and God knows, that has been challenging.

So as we all get busy preparing to celebrate tonight (or not) please know that when you reflect on all the highs and lows, struggles and triumphs and frustrating and funny times we shared that each one of you deserves an Oscar.

A special shout out to Bryan, who is headed to the eternal city, for his patience, strength and devotion. He gets the Jean Hersholt lifetime Oscar.

Happy New Year everyone.

xoxo Peggy
