Hello from the Origins Project, and Happy Birthday General Relativity!

We have exciting things to share with you about upcoming events and our available scholarships.

Events

An Origins Project Panel: Einstein's Legacy, Celebrating 100 Years of General Relativity

100 years ago today, Albert Einstein forever changed our view of the space, time, and the cosmos. Join some of the world's top experts for the culmination of a year long centenary celebration of Albert Einstein's developments of the theory of general relativity. Einstein himself would be amazed at what has transpired over the last century, from Black holes to an accelerating universe! The panel discussion will feature Nobel Laureates, scientists, and historians in conversation with Origins Project director Lawrence Krauss. Gain new insights into Einstein and his most famous work, exciting developments in physics, and what we can expect in the next 100 years from this groundbreaking theory.
