My dear Jeffrey,

I met with one of David's contacts yesterday - Dan Montroy - (The one who said they had recently taken on interior staff and interns but would meet with me anyway)

He was very very kind to me and spent a lot of time with me=talking not only about his business but the industry as a whole.

On Thursday I will meet with Jeffrey Cole - I am a li=tle more excited about that one as the company seems less massive and daunting.

David and I are going to talk today so that =e can make more introductions.

Thank you so much =effrey for all of this!!!!
