Dear Friends and Neighbors,

Tonight, Miami Critical Mass will be riding through Miami Beach. This cycling event, which occurs from time to time, draws thousands of bicyclists for a massive group ride that effectively takes over the city streets along the posted route. When the route brings the group to Miami Beach, as it will tonight, traffic can come to a standstill, and many residents have voiced their concerns.

Critical Mass is NOT sponsored or sanctioned by either the City of Miami Beach or the City of Miami, and no special event permits are issued. In fact, there is no central Critical Mass organization-even though the rides take place in cities all over the world. The purpose is to raise awareness for the right and the safety of cyclists. Unfortunately, the demonstration proves to be quite frustrating for motorists and others on the road when the group rolls out for the ride.

While we don't encourage, organize, or sponsor Critical Mass, bicyclists are welcome on Miami Beach. I'm a major proponent of the use of bicycles to alleviate traffic congestion in our City. That said, traffic violations that endanger anyone will not be tolerated. Our new police chief and his staff will be implementing traffic management protocols to help ensure the safety of everyone on Miami Beach, whether they are on two wheels, four wheels, or no wheels at all.

We have instructed our police department to explore innovative ways in the future to minimize any inconveniences to our residents and at the same time ensure the safety of the riders.

Below, you will find the route for tonight's ride.
