Greetings Mr. Thompson=

If Bart leaves on Saturday, the flight is $321.00. = If he waits until Sunday, the flight cost increases to $1,487.

<=r>

Please let me know. Kind regards, Daphne

Dear Daphne,

Yesterday, when I saw you, I forgot to ask you whether you c=n book the plane ticket for Bartholomew for this coming Sunday.

=is is his graduation year and he has final exams starting Monday. He did so=e assignments while on the Island, and he also helped me a lot, but he must=go this Sunday home, so he can graduate and not repeat the year. The best w=uld be the direct flight to NY, if this is possible. His uncle ( my brother=) will pick him up from the airport in NY. Any direct flight to JFK or Newark Airport, NJ would be fine.

Thank you and God bless you,<=div>

Well, we went to the store, but the all stores were closed. I s=spect, tomorrow will be the same, I do not know.

The problem tha= I had was with Mr. Epstein. The pictures that Ann took on her camera, some=of them were OK but some of them were brown.

I showed you t=e photos I took before I went to NY, there was a lot of pictures brown. Mr.=Epstein did not understand the brown color. He thought, I am re-d=ing his Library to his displeasure. It was emergency and I corresponded wit= him till 10:30 last night trying to explain to him that the photos are wro=g. How can you explain, the photos did not depict real color? In this case d=d not, and Mr. Epstein was furious, to say at least.

Today, after=the Mass, I took some pictures on my Canon Camera and they came out well. H= quieted himself after looking at them, but asked me about what do I intend=d to do in his Library. After explaining everything he was OK. This is not v=ry easy project for me. Mr. Epstein did not communicated with me from the b=ginning and mistakes took place. Right now, we are on the road to the finis=.

Kindly,

Brandon

PS. I spoke to TJ. I asked=him whether he could return to his wife. He told me, he has four children w=th three different wives. So, I asked him again, if he would go back to one=of them. He told me there is a possibility he could go back to the first wi=e. When I was going to NY, he asked me if I can bring him a girlfriend. I d= not play games, so I told him: TJ you had three wives and you have four ch=ldren to support, what kind of girlfriend would go with the man like this. H= got mad, as I devalue him at this point. I will not say anything anymore. I=just do not understand thinking like this.
