Hey Scott,

I have to work late tonight into tomorrow morning so this weekend is no good= I'm assuming that the MobileMe accounts are all set up and that users have=cleaned up their archived mail correct? Does next Saturday at 10pm work? W=uld it be ok if I set up a virtual machine on one of the XenServers with wi=dows xp and office so that we can start dumping mailbox data during the wee=? Do users have apple machines ready to go so that we can effectively shut=off the mailbox once a user is migrated?

Let me know if we are ready to go and maybe we can get some preliminary work=done during the week and finish next Saturday.

Thanks.
