Should I become an escort girl ??! Because I've noticed that=they have a far better life than I do and earn much, much more. Is this what you wish for me ? You took me and then dropped me from a skyscraper. Two=years ago I didn't understand nothing about life and you knew it. What=I understood from this whole story is that you change girls like you change= shoes, use them and throw them away and I was no exception.

I'm not whining, I'm trying to find solutions with you in order to get out of my situation. I am working hard and as I'm telling you working in=a restaurant is not in my field of interest but I'm doing it because I've got no other choice. When I worked at Coste I quitted because the atmosphere was awful, full of prostitutes and not very discrete. I've found a job in an other restaurant smaller where I'm actually working hard. I'm also continuing to babysit. None of these 2 jobs are in my field=of interest, financially gratifying or intellectually stimulating. So since=I'm working hard with zero satisfaction I'd like to understand what is the outcome from this.
