on LSJ 8:30am

-brought cisco switch for master bedroom --- configured with Jermaine last night -Will have Meeting with Gary @ around 10am for inspection of install progress, planning, report to follow (i know at the least he has to cap the ends and get a panel going in the master and the "hobbit"
-double checking all systems on my end ... so far working great and this is a true multi-zone solution simple to use.
-sonos controllers, and all apple gear all still fully functioning ready to be moved to the master (right now I am going with 1 airport extreme, 2 expresses, 1 zone player 120 with a zone bridge and ipad sonos controller (all controllers work effortlessly in all zones and are interchangeable at will)
