Hi =nbsp;Jeffrey,

I am so sorry for answering that late but I had a lot of problem with my =niversity and I didn't want to write you without news. I received an email saying =hat I failed two modules in Paris and that I have to stay in London for repair =he exams. I really wanted to come but apparently it's not possible. I finish the 10 of December and restart on February =ntil May. So I could also do middle of May June and July. I can also come and =isit you in October.

With affection
