Dear Francois,

I woke up to your email this morning, after=hosting my eldest daughters wedding party in Oslo - and what glorious news=to wake up to!!!

I feel profoundly honored, and with a deep =eeling of gratitude towards you - because, of course, I intuitively know y=ur hand has been in this!

I am now in transit at heathrow, en route from Oslo to D.C. Will be in NYC late Tuesday, may I have the pleasure of hosting you for lunch or dinner on Wednesday?

Warmest regards,

Terje

Dear Terje,

My warmest congratulations on your promotion as Commandeur in the French Legion of Honor.

The Legion of Honor is France's highest distinction and one of the most coveted in the world. And the rank of Commander is truly exceptional.

So this award says a lot about the high esteem and deep appreciation that the French authorities have for you, in recognition of your exemplary commitment to peace and to France.

I very much look forward to seeing you again soon.

Warm regards,

François
