Sorry for a late reply. Went out last night and just woke up (4pm ;)

Ellis and Joanna sent me emails that they can see your island and that they=are snorkeling around.

I told them to call you or email you.

Glad that it worked.

Let me know how you like them.

I really like her - she is a Chief of staff for Jeffrey Sachs. But much sm=rter for that role.

It's kind of you to offer lunch. That seems like fun.

Would you be interested in meeting our 27-year-old Swedish daughter and her=boyfriend or would you prefer just us?

Also, how would we get to you? Is our best bet to get the concierge here to=organize a boat that would get us to you and back? Or should we go to the =lace where boats go to St. Johns and find someone there?
